PRODUCT AVAILABILITY PROMISE Our original design, limited edition merchandise is available only through Peruvian Connection. We make every effort to keep all pieces of our collection in stock, but occasionally demand exceeds our limited edition supply. Many of our handmade items involve custom yarns and fabrics not otherwise available that require considerable time to make. We promise not to charge your credit card until items are ready to ship.

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN Our products are designed by our US and UK based design team. Whenever possible, designs are produced in South America. When fibers such as silk are not locally available in Peru, we produce those goods where they are best sourced, including China and India, provided their quality and working conditions meet our exacting standards.

MAIL PREFERENCE Occasionally our list of customers' names and addresses is made available to carefully screened companies whose products may be of interest to you. If you'd prefer not to receive such mailings, please return your mailing label, or copy it exactly, including punctuation, to us. (Mail preference status takes a minimum of six weeks to process.)

GIFT CARDS Always the perfect gift...our gift card arrives with your personal message and a current catalogue in an elegant presentation folder. Available in denominations of $25 to $1,000, gift cards may be redeemed through our catalog, website or any of our retail stores.

GIFT BOX Our elegant gift boxes are decorated in an original Peruvian Connection print, trimmed with a black band and an alpaca or Andean woman etching gift tag. (Jewelry boxes are solid black with a patterned band.) Please add $6.00 per gift box.

SIZE GUIDE Please use the body sizing chart below to find the perfect fit, or call customer service for assistance. Our garments are made in standard American sizes. Actual measurements vary by style, but the chart below is a good guideline for size selection. Women's garment lengths have been designed for an average height of 5'6". Petite styles, where offered, are proportioned for women 5'4" and under.

Chest: Measure at the fullest part of the bust. Use the chest measurement as a guideline when selecting sizes for tops, sweaters and dresses.

Hips: Measure around the fullest part of hips (approx. 8" below waist). Use the hip measurement when selecting sizes for skirts and trousers.

Skirt Length: Measure 1/2" below the waist (at the waist for items without a waistband), and compare tape measure length to catalog item length.

WOMEN'S SIZING CHART (actual body measurements in inches)
 Match your measurements to those in the regular size chart below.
